

Chart Pack: Emergency Preparedness and Response

Launched on September 6, 2011

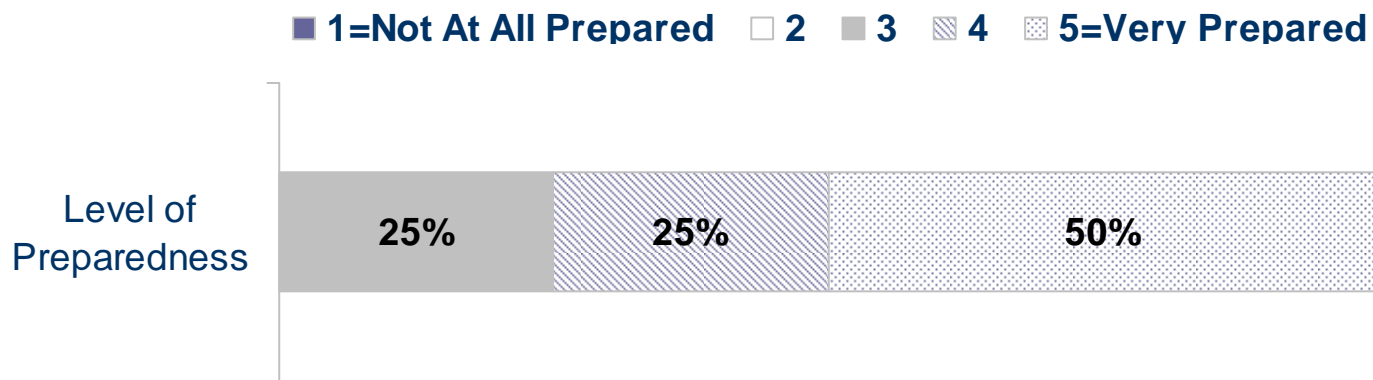

This report was funded by the members of the National Business Group on Health and is for their exclusive use. To protect the proprietary and confidential information included in this material, it can only be shared, in either print or electronic formats, within and among Business Group member companies. All other uses require permission from the National Business Group on Health.
2011 National Business Group on Health

Employers' Level of Preparedness for a Large-Scale Emergency

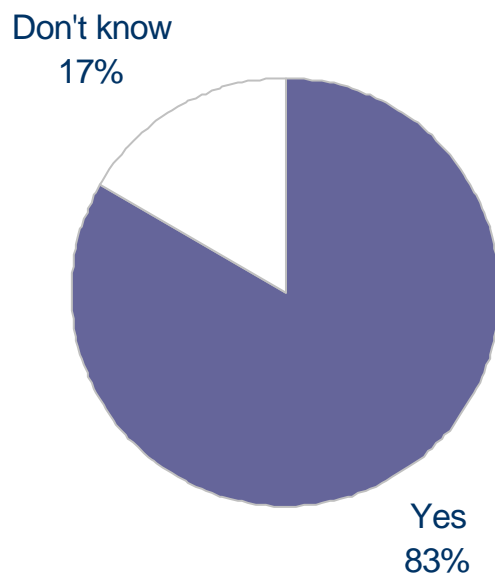

Number of Responses=12

Employers that Coordinate with or Use Resources from National, State and/or Local Public Health Agencies in its Emergency Planning

Number of Responses=12

Employers that Have Altered Emergency Preparedness Plans after the H1N1 Pandemic in 2009

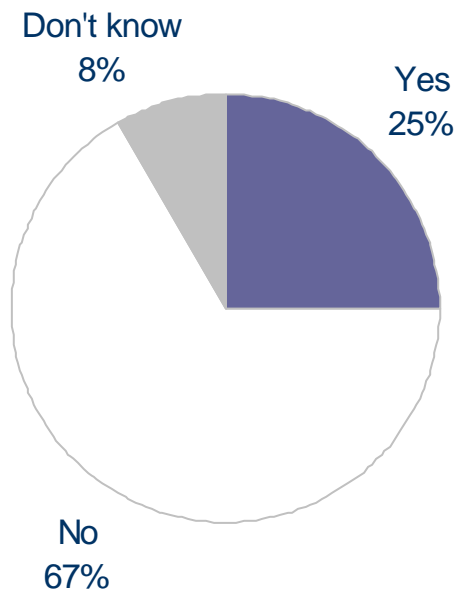

Number of Responses=12

Employers that Edited their Quarantine or Social Distancing Policies after 2009 H1N1 Outbreak

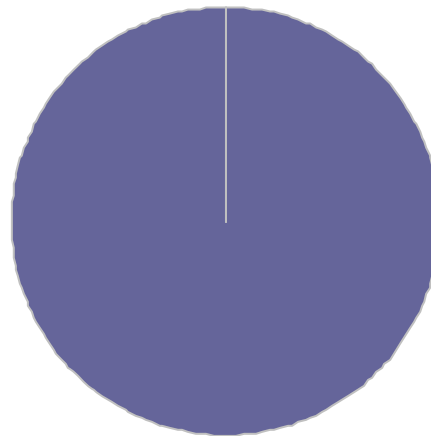

Number of Responses=12

Coverage of Individual or Group Counseling Company-Wide after an Emergency

Number of Responses=12

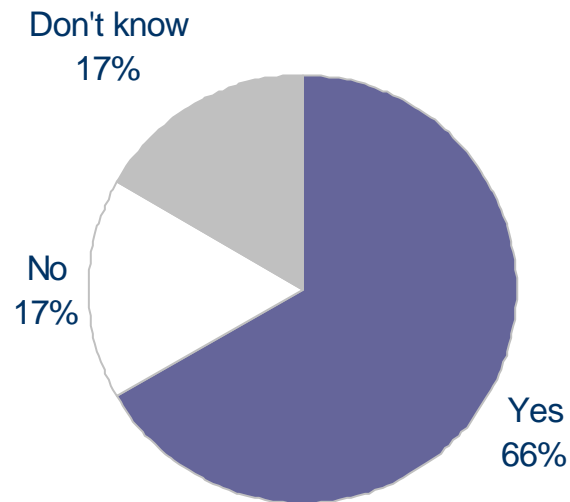

Yes, our EAP is able to provide individual and group counseling on-site 100%

Employers with Emergency Plans that Specifically Address Employees with Disabilities

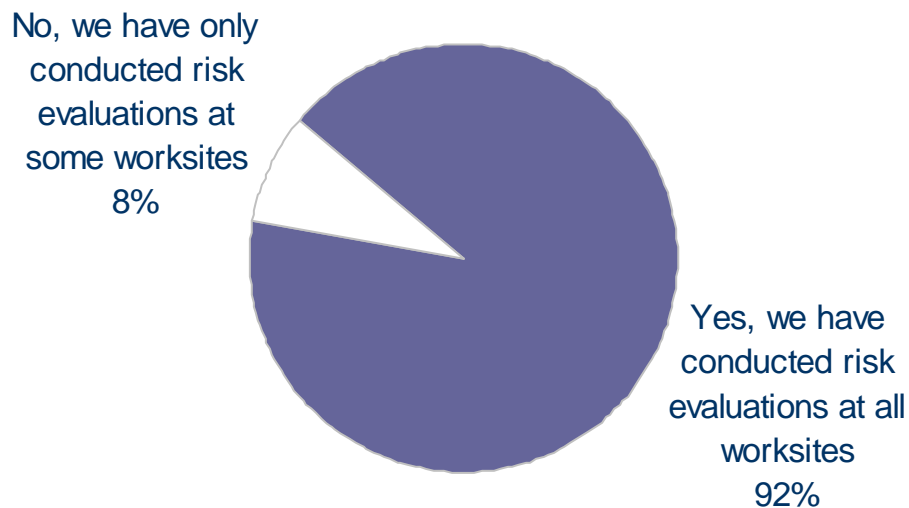

Number of Responses=12

Conducting Risk Evaluations to Assess Hazards and Potential Threats at All Locations

Number of Responses=12

Employers with Business Continuity Plans

Number of Responses=12

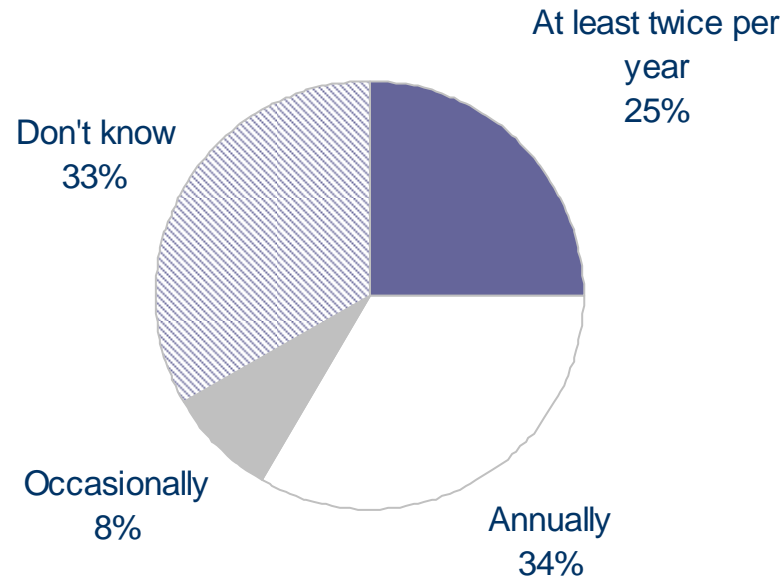

Source: National Business Group on Health, Emergency Preparedness and Response, 2011.

How Often Employers Practice Emergency Plans

Number of Responses=12

Worksites Supplied to Serve as a Shelter-In-Place

Number of Responses=11

Frequency of Emergency Plan Communications

Number of Responses=12

Methods of Communicating Emergency Plans to Employees

Number of Responses=12

Note: Respondents were allowed to select more than one option.

Note: Other responses included: setting up a voice mail box to call in for specific sites.

Source: National Business Group on Health, Emergency Preparedness and Response, 2011.

Languages in which U.S. Emergency Plans are Produced

Number of Responses=12

Note: Respondents were allowed to select more than one option.

Source: National Business Group on Health, Emergency Preparedness and Response, 2011.

Participants

Those respondents who agreed to be listed.

AstraZeneca

Campbell Soup Company

CBS Corporation

Intel Corporation

JetBlue Airways

Principal Financial Group

SABIC Innovative Plastics

Unum